

Childhood Conversion

Conversion has two aspects:

1. _____
2. _____

Conversion - our willing response to the gospel call, in which we sincerely repent of our sins and place our trust in Christ for salvation.

Repentance is a radical and conscious change of _____ (the intellect), change of _____ (the emotions), and change of _____ (the volition) with respect to God, ourselves, sin, and righteousness.

Faith

1. _____ is the cognitive foundation or base of saving faith (Romans 10.17).
2. _____ refers to the intellectual or cognitive conviction that the knowledge one has acquired about Christ is indeed factually true and that the provisions of the gospel of Christ correspond exactly to one's actual spiritual needs.
3. _____ is conviction that has matured into confidence.

Can we cause repentance?

Can we cause faith?

What does it mean to be born again?
